Sub; Creation of Heritage Section in the Central Library, Chatha reg;

The Central Library, Chatha opened its new Heritage Section. The event was graced by Dr. B. N. Tripathi, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, who officially inaugurated the section dedicated to showcasing the rich and diverse heritage of Jammu and Kashmir, with a special emphasis on the Jammu region.

The Heritage Section stands as a comprehensive repository of knowledge encompassing the region's historical roots, political and cultural identity, local languages, and demographic evolution. It houses an extensive collection on primitive Dogra heritage, traditional culture, the historical political landscape of Jammu and Kashmir, demographic changes, and the impacts of partition. Dedicated clippings file featuring key historical documents, articles, and visuals serves as an invaluable resource for researchers, students and the scholars. Heritage Section with collection of artifacts and documents; is a bridge connecting our past to the future, ensuring that the stories of our ancestors, the resilience of the Dogra people, and the complex socio-political journey of Jammu and Kashmir are accessible to generations to come. As the world is welcoming 2026 with high spirits and resolute commitments to excellence, Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences and Technology of Jammu (SKUAST Jammu) proudly marks the close of 2025 with a meaningful milestone. The Heritage Section is open to all the university members, students, faculty, staff, and visitors for deeper exploration of Jammu and Kashmir's multifaceted legacy. This thoughtful contribution significantly enriches our collection and supports our mission to promote knowledge and awareness about standardization among our library users. Any contribution to strengthen this section is welcome in enhancing the resources available to students and researchers who rely on our library for credible sources in fostering regional culture & heritage.
