Circular

It is hereby informed that the repair work undertaken in the hostel premises requires close supervision from time to time. The execution must be in accordance with the prescribed standards and relevant provisions. Any deficiency or irregularity observed during the course of work should either be rectified on the spot or immediately brought to the notice of the undersigned so that the work can be executed properly.

Hence, the concerned wardens are advised to monitor the execution of repair work from time to time. They may also depute subordinate staff for this purpose on a rotational basis.

This matter may kindly be treated with due seriousness.
